DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 25 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Moriyasu.

Moriyasu discloses in figures 1-15 a massage device comprising at least one massage surface (the surface of 1200), at least one motor (col. 3, lines 29-30), means (a switch) for selectively activating the motor and means (the wire) for attaching the massage device to the remote control.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-24 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed January 18, 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argues that Moriyasu does not disclose a massage device that may be selectively attached to a remote control device so as to form a hand held integrated remote control massage device. However, Moriyasu discloses a massage device that can be selectively attached to a remote control (via the wire). Whether the device is hand held does not provide any novelty over the prior art. Moriyasu clearly discloses the positive structural limitations recited in claim 25.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
